Improvements in the Second Ward.

Many portions of our city present encouraging evidences that our people are still maintaining a healthy confidence in the stability of our free Government. This is evinced by the new buildings constantly being creeted, and other improvements which are being made. The Second ward presents these evidences of thritt and enterprise, in a manner which will compare favorably with any other part of the metropolis.

Among others, we were struck with the great improvement which has been made in the store, corner of Eleventh and I streets. The presence of a first class grecory store in a community, is always a favorable indication, it denotes that the residents are people of taste, enterprise, and means. Mr. Wm. Corwin Burgy Keeps such a store, and as a consequence has such a class of customers. His store has been recently fitted up in elegant style, and is now one of the most spacious and neathy arranged stores of the kind in the city. He deserves a liberal partonage, not only for this, but becases he sells the very lesst quality of goods at the cheapest rates. His groories are the very best the city affords. His teas, embracing all the choicest qualities, are imported by themselves—thus saving the intermediate profits of importer, jobber, and wholesale dealer—while their wines and brandles are supplied by the well-known house of Wm. N. Corwin & Co., of New York. The celebrated Goshen Batter, kept only by this house, we believe, comes direct from the dairy, and, great and increasing as are the demands for it, a hountiful supply may at all times be obtained at the lowest prices. This is the only place where Stuart's celebrated candies may be obtained. As he sells rapidly, and is constantly receiving new supplies of goods, his stock is always fresh and deairable. We congratulate the citizens of this ward, upon such admirable facilities for good living which they possess. Remember this ward, upon such admirable facilities to good living which they possess. Remembe Mr. Wm. Corwin Burgy, corner of Eleventh an I streets, in the Second ward.

A Singular and Patsi Accident.

On Tuesday night last, a girl met with death by a strange accident. The girl was a servant at the Delayan House, on the corner of 9th street and Pennsylvania Avenue. The proprietor of the house purchased a demiptin of oil of vitriol for the purpose of burning the facor of a room previous to varnishing the same. The girl, who had occasion to pass into the room where the liquor was placed, and thinking it to be whiskey, attempted to take a drink of the same, and swallowed a portion of it. Sho then went out of the house and walked a mile to the house of a friend, where she fell nearly exhausted from the effects of the terrible poisson. Several physicians were called but were unable to render any assistance, She ingered along through the sight in great agony, and death relieved her of her suffering shout 5 o'clock yesterday morning. The girl enjoyed the confidence of her employer, and A Singular and Patel Accident shout 5 o'clock yesterday morning. The gir enjoyed the condence of her employer, and was liked by all the hearders. The case serve as a warning to all the parties for the careless ness manifested.

We are requested, by Officer McCauley, to state that the case of arrest of Lieut. Manderville, of the Fourteenth New York regiment, whose name appeared twice in our police reports, is a case of false personation. It has since been discovered, and proved beyond a doubt, that the person who represented himself as Lieut. Manderville, is a man by the name of Waring, a private in the Fourteenth regiment, who descried, assumed a lieutenant's uniform and name, and cut quite a swell in this city for a time. He once calished in the Second District regiment, and then deserted. We glady make this statement, in order to put a worthy officer right, who though displaying the white liver on one occasion, has more than retrieved his name for bravery in the field of battle.

Catherine Feley, a not-rious female of doubt-ful repute, was arrested, on Monday last, for stealing a lot of underclothess from Eilen Solderness. She was held for a while and then examined by Justice Walter, when it was as certained that most of the clothing had been restored just previous to the arrest. She being a stranger in the city, the Justice gave her a soutable admonition and let her go.

The very next day she was again arrested, by Officer Thompson, of the Fourth ward, on complaint of John McManara, who charged her with stealing $11 in money from him. Tendulars of the money was found on the person of tatherine, and she was committed to just for a further bearing.

Saliing Liquor

George Cole, a colored man, who keeps an eating shanty on the corner of Four-and-a-half and Extreets, on the Island, was arrested yesterday, by Officer McCauley, on the charge of selling liquor without a license. He was taken before Justice Stratton, and fined $20.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23, 1862. Special Order No. 67. Capt. D. G. McKriver, Commanding Detective Corps Metropolitan Police—Sir: You will instruct the members of your command to arrest and bring before me, all known burglars, thieves, pickpeckets, &c., found at large in the District, to the end that they may be compelled to leave the said District forthwith. By order of order of

W. B. WEER,
Superintendent.

After the above order had been issued, the detective corps arrested James Powers (alias) Jim Read, on suspicion of being concerned in the burglaries which have recently been committed in this city. He was brought to the ofnice, and Mrs. Charles, who was recently robbed in a very bold manner, was summoned to the office, to see if she could identify the above party. This she could not do, as the robbers wer emasked at the sime the offence was committed. This man's character being well known as an expert burglar and thief by the police, he was informed that we must leave the city next day at 5 p. m. by the superintendent.
This order he failed to comply with. He kept out of the way of the police until the 31st ult., when he was again arrested and taken to the office, and once more subjected to the scrutiny of Mr. Irwing S. Hunt, clerk to Gen. Wadsworth, Military Gernor of the District, whose room was entered by burglare on the night of the 26th ult., at 424 Fifteenth street, and eight dollars in bank notes, a silver watch, and a quantity of valuable papers stolen from him. The Journals and tried the room of Captain Green, boarding at the same house, but were spoken to by the Captain and frightened off. The day previous, Captain Green had drawn a considerable amount of money from the Treasury, and on his way home he noticed that he was followed by two men. Subsequently, he took a walk with his wife in Lafayette square, when he again noticed the same parties following him. Captain Green, although not able to swear positively to the identity of this man, Powers, yet is of the opinion that he is one of the men who was following him, he having on at the time false whiskers. Powers was again directed to leave the city by the superintendent, and informed that if he did not, he would be connied in the guard house, as a dangerous character, under an order of the provest marshal, issued for the purpose of ridding the commnity of all dangerous characters. An officer W. B. WERR, Superintendent.

ly taken before Justice Ponn, who held him to bail for a further hearing, on Monday, the 3d inst., at 4 p. m.

By order of the provost marshal, a sergeant of the guard and two men arrested Powers and conveyed him to the 5 p. m. train, and saw him cfi. The same evening he was sgain seen in the streets of Washington, thus setting at defiance both the police and military authorities of the District. Upon learning the above, the provost marshal ordered that a guard be furnished to the police authorities, to assist in the provost marshal concered that a guard be furnished to the police authorities, to assist in the provost marshal concered that a guard be furnished to the police authorities, to assist in the District, and when arrested, to be confined in the guard-house until further orders, administering to each a shower bath freely twice each day. On the night of the 3d instant, Captain McKelevay and two of his men arrested Powers and conveyed him to the provost marshal's office, and he was committed by that officer and the did tapitol prison, where he will remain until some further action is taken in the matter. We understand that steps have been taken to procure all particulars as to the antecedents of this man Powers.

The annual communication of the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia took place at the half, corner of D and Ninth streets, last Tuesday evening. The present and past grand officers and full representations from the sub-ordinate lodges were in attendance. Theorare now about nine hundred affiliated masons on the returns. Great activity prevails at this yard. There are now about 1,700 workmen employed here, and work is in progress night and day. The repairs on the Monitor are nearly completed, and she will be ready for service in the course of this west. and ano will be ready for service in the course of this week.

The displatch steamer Ella came up from the Lower Potemac yesterday afternoon, but left again in a couple of hours, taking down one of the mortar schooners in tow, which will be used as a guard vessel at some point on the river.

The Robbery Case.

The Robbery Case.

Moses Clark, the colored man who was sent to jail on snepicion of being concerned in the robbery of Mr. James Shreve, of $5,000, has had a further hearing before Justice Thompson. The evidence was not sufficient to justify the longer duention of the prisoner. His knowledge of the pecket-book was only from seeing it in the owner's hands; and the reason of his early leaving the store where he was employed, was because be had got through with his work. He was dismissed.

Trinity Church Hospital. Trinity Church Rospital.

There are two hospitals with the above name—one in Third street, near C. Washington, and the other in Georgetown. As averal mistakes have occurred to citizens and others who have to do with the hospitals, we are induced to publish this fact. We would also suggest a change in the name of one of these hospitals.

Profanity in the Atrests is forbidden by law, yet is often indulged in. Yes-terday, James Shields, a colored wagon-driver, was indulging his passion in his usual style, on the streets; whereupen Officer Conneil took him in charge and locked him up in the sta-tion. He will be tried by Justice Walter this morning, when he may get a lesson which will help to cure him of his bad habits.

A Murder Case

Has been reported to us as having occurred on Wednesday night, at a figure store on F street, near Twelfth. A volored man went into the store to purchase some liquor, and a difficulty arose about changing his money, which led to a quarrel, resulting in the death of the colored man. We could not ascertain further particulars last night.

Disorderly Conduct.

Robert Willot was arrested yesterday by Officer Caraher, of the Seventh ward, on the complaint of John Worden, for kicking up a muss in a house of ill fame on the Island. He was taken before Justice Stratton and fined $5.94, and admonished to behave himself in future.

Whose name figures in the police reports so often, was again in trouble yesterday. Aaron Dennis got on a spree, went to the police station and entered complaint against a party whose name he did not know, to whom he had conded the sum of $50 to keep while on his bender. Dennis, accompanied by Officer Ashton, went to the house of Dugan, who was fully identified as the man who held his money. Fellx stoutly desied, under oath before Justice Stratton, that he ever saw the money. As there was but one witness on each side the case could not be made a criminal one, and the party was dismissed. The only remedy left for Dennis, is to resort to a civil process in the matter.

Little Commodore Poote

Visited Ford's theatre last night, to witness the wonderful evolutions of Young America on the trapeze. The little inan onloyed the performance very much, and testified his appreciation freely on his way out with the crowd. By the way, the Commodore is an exemplary man, (he won't allow us to call him a boy.) A gentleman offered him a cigar last night. "No, I thank you; I don't smoke," was his prompt response. His abstemious habits may be one of the secrets of his excellent health.

Resigned. Col. C. M. Zulick has tendered his resigna-lon as commander of the Second District regi-nent, owing to continued ill health.
